

A Message from our CEO During this Difficult Time

We hope you are doing well. As I'm sure you've seen, out of an abundance of caution and in an effort to minimize the spread of the Coronavirus, Governor Cuomo and the Broadway League have announced that Broadway performances have been temporarily halted. The State of New York and many others have declared a State of Emergency in order to provide the necessary financial support and resources to first responders. StudentsLive wanted to reach out to you and assure you that we are proceeding with all workshops resuming as normal upon the reopening of Broadway show performances. We are all healthy and well here and looking forward to a busy spring and summer.

In an effort to help everyone feel reassured and confident that Broadway and our workshops will return and be back to normal soon, we are offering our valued groups and teachers a special 10% workshop discount opportunity for reservations placed before Monday June 1, 2020 for all performance date starting with when Broadway shows resume through the end of 2020. We hope this will encourage you to come back to Broadway when everything is back to normal.

We are very proud of our Broadway community for working together to try and keep the most vulnerable in our community and audiences as healthy as we can at this time and are glad to know all of our Broadway community, friends and family are taking necessary precautions and following the advice of the medical experts to stay safe and healthy. This is a difficult time for all and we are committed to an evidence led and common-sense approach to containing the Coronavirus outbreak and mitigating its impact on our loyal collaborators, artists, partners and patrons.

We have every confidence that this difficult time will pass in the very near future and that Broadway and our Award-Winning Theater Education Programming will be back up and running stronger than ever before. Stay safe, take care of yourself and we are here should you have any questions or need any extra support at this time. Much love from our family and team to you and yours.

Sincerely,

Amy Weinstein
