“My daughter attended the “All that Jazz” workshop yesterday at the Orange County Performing Arts. I cannot tell you what a great program your group performed. The entire crew was fun, energetic and so professional. We’ve attended many plays here, L.A. and New York but my daughter’s never been as interested as she was yesterday when watching Chicago. She knew so much more about the show, the characters, the actors and the dance routines. You’re offering a great service to our children.”

-Mary Kay Coo, Parent (CHICAGO Workshop)

“It was much more than I expected. There was so much audience participation, I was very impressed. The actors were great; they really seemed to enjoy being there with the girls. This was very well put together...We just LOVED IT.”

- Mashell Ingrande, Parent (CHICAGO Workshop)

“Thank you again for a wonderful workshop. The girls commented that the performance was even more entertaining because they could watch the cast members that had spoken to them. The girls were constantly engaged and they never stopped moving. The choreography section was fantastic. The way that the audience was involved was great. Our Girl Scout troop drove 2 hours from the desert and we were thrilled to participate. We shared the information with two other troops in our area and they attended and were equally pleased. We would make every effort to participate in the future. The moms had a great time too!”
